§ 538.410 Imports of Sudanese goods from third countries; transshipments.

- (a) Importation into the United States from third countries of goods containing raw materials or components of Sudanese origin is not prohibited if those raw materials or components have been incorporated into manufactured products or otherwise substantially transformed in a third country.
- (b) Importation into the United States of goods of Sudanese origin that have been transshipped through a third country without being incorporated into manufactured products or otherwise substantially transformed in a third country are prohibited.

§ 538.411 Exports to third countries; transshipments.

Exportation of goods or technology (including technical data, software, information not exempted from the prohibition of this part pursuant to §538.211, or technical assistance) from the United States to third countries is prohibited if the exporter knows, or has reason to know, that the goods or technology are intended for transshipment to Sudan (including passage through, or storage in, intermediate destinations). The exportation of goods or technology intended specifically for incorporation or substantial transformation into a third-country product is also prohibited if the particular product is to be used in Sudan, is being specifically manufactured to fill a Sudanese order, or if the manufacturer's sales of the particular product are predominantly to Sudan.

§538.414 Loans or extensions of credit.

- (a) The prohibition in §538.205 applies to loans or extensions of credit to a person in Sudan, including overdraft protection on checking accounts, and the unlicensed renewal or rescheduling of credits or loans in existence as of the effective date, whether by affirmative action or operation of law.
- (b) The prohibition in §538.205 applies to financial services including loans or credits extended in any currency.

§538.415 Payments involving Sudan.

Before a United States financial institution initiates a payment subject to the prohibitions contained in this part on behalf of any customer, or credits a transfer subject to such prohibitions to the account on its books of the ultimate beneficiary, the U.S. financial institution must determine that the transfer is not prohibited by this part.

§ 538.416 Payments from blocked accounts to U.S. exporters and for other obligations prohibited.

No debits may be made to a blocked account to pay obligations to U.S. persons or other persons, including payment for goods, technology or services exported prior to the effective date, except as authorized pursuant to this part.

§ 538.417 Transshipments through Sudan.

- (a) The exportation or reexportation of goods, technology, or services to the Specified Areas of Sudan is exempt under $538.212(g) only if such goods, technology, or services do not transit or tranship through any area of Sudan other than the Specified Areas of Sudan.
- (b) The importation into the United States of goods or services from, or originating in, the Specified Areas of Sudan is exempt under $538.212(g) only if such goods or services do not transit or transship through any area of Sudan other than the Specified Areas of Sudan.

Note to $538.417. See $538.532, which authorizes humanitarian transshipments to or from Southern Sudan and Darfur.
